

Membership Meeting - May 10, 2014

Hostess –Susan Casaleggio – Jacksonville, Oregon.

Meeting called to order by Carol Haynes at 2:35.

Introduction of members.

Heidi Griffiths, new membership.

Wally Schwab Workshop – Teri and Janise.

Still have some openings for the workshop on May 17 and 18, Saturday and Sunday, at RCC in downtown Grants Pass. He has ordered 200 to 300 pounds of clay and will be doing lots of throwing. He does decorative glazing. There will be some hands on slab work for the participants. After today, application to the workshop will be open to the public. Currently have 15 people signed up and workshop will be capped at 20. Cost: $65 for members and $75 for nonmembers. Light refreshments will be supplied and participants are to bring clay, how much depends on how ambitious the participants wish to be.

Encouraged members to check the membership directory for changes and revisions.

Membership Dues and show applications are due by the end of May.

Questions: Application in the last newsletter, either via mail or via email. Can also obtain from the website. Hard copies only sent to people who do not get newsletter via email.

Must be a member for a year to get into a half or full booth. May get into the group booth after membership dues are paid.

The tax preparer got sick and an extension was filed.

Membership training position has been taken by Claire Delffs.

Points are given to trainees for membership, newsletter, webmaster and points chairs – 2 points. Not retroactive.

Next membership meeting is at Debbie Raddatz-Thompson in Eagle Point, Oregon.

Questions:

Larger photo cube or paper for pictures at the show. Penelope will talk with the photographer about a larger area for photo sessions. Suggestions: Roll of newsprint from the newspaper.

Debbie Raddatz-Thompson pit fire at March 2015 meeting?

Mary Lous Schnoes was planning pit fire In March 2015. Will check with Debbie about a pit fire this year.

Pit fire planned for March 2015. Information will be in the November newsletter.

Program: Peter Olsen demonstration. Peter showed how he makes his delightful animal sculptures.