Final setup: Saturday, May 17 8:00 AM to 9:15 AM.

All vehicles must be parked in EdenVale's back lot by 9:15

Participants handle their booth setup/ teardown, sales and wrapping.

WIFI will be available day of event.

Booth size is 10'X10'. Cost of booth is $35.00 plus a processing fee. Two vendors may share a booth. Only one person in a shared booth registers and pays the $35.00 booth fee.

This is a rain or shine event. No refunds.

NO seconds. 85% of each piece must be clay.

All participants must pay a 5 % commission of their total sales to Clayfolk. No commission will be charged if vendors sales are $200 or less.

Bring a check payable to Clayfolk at the end of the event or mail to the designated accountant within 2 days after the show. (addressed envelopes will be provided) Please NO cash.

The grounds, grass, or gravel are relatively level but some shims may be helpful. Please do NOT use tent stakes to secure your canopy. There are irrigation lines that are at risk of being punctured.

Booth layout and choice of spaces will be available in April.

The last day to register without a late fee is Saturday, February 15, 2025. Late registration will be available thru Saturday, March 15, 2025. The cost will include an added $15.00 late fee and based on booth availability.

Please send 4 photos of your current work to Kendra: clayfolksocialmedia@gmail.com before February 15, 2025. These photos will be used for publicity & advertising. We also encourage you to update photos and bio at the Clayfolk member gallery.

Harvest Host is available at EdenVale Winery. Please contact them directly if you are interested.
